Workshop and materials fee: $125 Registration fee: $25 (Total cost: $150)

To participate in the class effectively you will need a camera with some degree of manual control. This can be a DSLR, a compact system camera (CSC), or a pocket camera with exposure control. If in doubt, contact the instructor to find out if your camera is appropriate for the class.

Workshop activities will include photo-shoot assignments and demonstrations. Each participant will have the opportunity to make and take a 13x19 print of their favorite image at the end of the workshop. To ensure personal attention, workshop participation is limited to 10 students.

The workshop dates are as follows: Five Monday evenings, beginning January 23, from 6:30 to 8:30, at the Conservatory of Fine Arts, located at 930 South Street. We will schedule a sixth session on a Saturday that is convenient for those enrolled. This will be a photo 'field trip.'

For more information, please contact the instructor directly at the contacts listed above.

If registering by mail, please return this form, along with your check for the total cost payable to "Conservatory of the Fine Arts" and mail it to Dr. David Rorick, 1415 Baum Street, Vicksburg, MS, 39180.
